

The State of Washington

Proclamation

WHEREAS, school principals are expected to be educational visionaries, instructional leaders, assessment experts, disciplinarians, community builders, public relations experts, budget analysts, facility managers, special programs administrators, and guardians of various legal, contractual, and policy mandates and initiatives, and are entrusted with the education and development of young people; and

WHEREAS, school principals set the academic tone for their schools and work collaboratively with teachers to develop and maintain high curriculum standards, develop mission statements, and set performance goals and objectives to achieve educational excellence; and

WHEREAS, the Association of Washington School Principals honors exemplary school principals who have succeeded in providing high-quality learning opportunities for students for their exemplary contributions to the profession; and

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Jay Inslee, Governor of the state of Washington, do hereby proclaim the month of October, 2018, to be in Washington, and I encourage all people in our state to honor and recognize the contributions of school principals and assistant principals in the success of students in Washington elementary and secondary schools.
